Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Currently, the state minimum wage law requires that employers pay a living wage to their employees. Under that law, the Department of Workforce Development (DWD) has provided, by rule, minimum wages for various types of employees, including employees, generally; opportunity employees, which are defined as employees under 20 years of age in their first 90 days of employment with a particular employer; tipped employees; agricultural employees; camp counselors; golf caddies; students employed at independent colleges and universities for less than 20 hours per week; student learners employed in bona fide school training programs; and individuals who are unable to earn the standard minimum wage

ASSEMBLY BILL 77Meals

Current allowance	$44.40 per week or $2.10 per meal
Allowance on enactment	$51 per week or $2.40 per meal

For further information see the state and local fiscal estimate, which will be printed as an appendix to this bill.
